THE DEVIL—YOUNG AND OLD.

Every printing office is supposed to keep a "Printer's Devil" in stock. He is usually a young man, ordinarily a VERY young man. It sometimes happens, too, that the "Devil" breaks into the print shop—but in this event it is not a young man, but the Old Nick himself. He was with us last week, in full regalia, and is likely to be present again this week on press day. It was the YOUNG devil who left the ink rollers on the press bed until they were as flat as a pancake on one side, and then the Old Harry got into them and stayed in them, and neither moral suasion, the heat of the stove nor mallet and plane thereafter had any effect upon them, other than to make them worse and more obstinate. They would simply run over the forms and distribute the ink on the plan that breakfast bacon is built upon—a streak of lean and a streak of fat. We labored all day Friday with the proposition of getting cut a paper that could be read or guessed at, but made almost as great a failure as congress did in trying to knock Joe Cannon out of the Christmas tree.

Along about the 1st of March we sent a set of old roller cores to the Denver Type Foundry to have them re-cast. March 29 they arrived in Denver, by "fast freight" and were re-cast and re-shipped on March 31st. If they make as good time "comin' as a-goin'," they will be here by the time congress adjourns, and enable us to get out a special Statehood edition—if deemed expedient—otherwise our next readable paper may appear sometime during the Christmas holidays.

Should we be able to print this article plain enough to be read you will understand the situation, and know what we are up against, but, as the Irishman wrote to his sweetheart, "If yez can't rade the let-thur, bring it to me, me darlint, and Oil'll tache ye the meanin' ov it."

HALLEY'S COMET.

It is reported by some of our citizens whose sins will not let them sleep mornin's that the comet is now visible just before daylight. We cannot verify the report, for at that hour we are usually discussing current events with the citizens of Dreamland, and worrying not at all about is ready to mail. It will be sent to any person interested in fruit-growing on receipt of 7 cents to cover postage. The Stark Year Book for 1910 represents an entirely new idea in nurserymen's literature—it is a work of art as well as a catalogue of Stark Nursery products. Within its covers are 32 full-page illustrations of fruits and flowers, representing 125 varieties, done in four colors, and exactly reproducing nature. 84 pages are devoted to descriptions, prices, and records. Stark Delicious, the apple that has revolutionized orchard planting and established a new standard of apple values (selling at $10.00 per bushel box this year); Stark King David, another apple of wondrous quality and merit; Stark King Philip, a hardy black grape of California grape quality, and dozens of the very best things in the horticultural world are fully described, illustrated, and priced. To any one planting one tree or many, of fruits or ornamental, this book is of inestimable value—a horticultural text-book—a guide to proper selection. Stark trees have stood the supreme test of actual planting for 85 years—they are the yard-stick by which all other nursery products are measured—they are the first choice of this country's most successful orchardists. The success of the orchard is dependent on the kind and quality of tree planted. Stark varieties are the best of the best. Our record of 85 years of successful selling is a positive guarantee of tree quality. Before you decide to buy, send 7 cents for the Stark Year Book—do it today before the edition is exhausted.

comets or comets' tails. Later on, say about the middle of May, if the theory of some scientists is to be given weight, things may pick up with us, and if it gets as hot as they predict it is to be while the earth is passing through the tail of the comet we may cut our visits to Dreamland out for a time. Some of the scientific guessers claim that it is going to get real warm, and that when the comet gets to lashing its tail around the earth like a cattleman's whip girdles the loins of a refractory maverick, the true believers in the veritable lake of fire and brimstone will get a keen foretaste of what they think the other fellow is going to enjoy in the world to come. Least there be some truth in the predictions, we would advise even those dear people who cling to the conviction that they themselves are fully saved, and that all those who differ with them in any point of belief are en route for that aforementioned big lake, to look well to their fire-proof jackets, and see that the mice or moths haven't put them out of commission. We can't tell how hot this comet's tail may be, and it mought ketch you un-prepared. Now is a good time to pay up your past-due subscriptions. Same old price until after May 18.

ROSWELL GOES DRY.

In the city election at Roswell on Tuesday, April 5th, the No-License ticket elected all but two of their candidates, which are one alderman and one member of the school board from the fifth ward, and they were barely pulled through by the wets. This gives the mayor, treasurer, city clerk, six newly elected aldermen and five members of the school board for the dry, and means that when the present saloon license expires June 30, they will not be renewed, and for two years Roswell will be a dry town.

Dr. Veal was elected mayor by 39 votes over J. S. Lea, the democratic candidate.
